This celebration highlights the journey of Khmer women in Lowell. Our keynote speaker and other Khmer women will share their personal journeys to professional success and community activism. With great courage, generosity, compassion and determination, Khmer women continue to make a difference in their community.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ms. BORA CHIEMRUOM, Executive Director, Commonwealth of MA Asian American Commission.

A refugee from Cambodia, in 1981, Bora and her family obtained their sponsorship and settled in Chicago, Illinois and grew up in Lowell, Massachusetts. She has over 17 years of advocacy and non-profit leadership experience. She continues to be a passionate advocate for the Khmer Community and for all Asian Americans.

RSVP by March 7 to Judy Mackey – Element Care

jmackey@elementcare.org

(978) 513-7264

SPONSORED BY

For more information on Lowell Women’s Week Events: https://lowellwomensweek.org/